

PRESS RELEASE

Board of the CMF approves Publications Policy and protocol for conducting studies with external researchers

June 9, 2021 – The Board of the Financial Market Commission (CMF) approved its new Policy for Publishing Non-Regular Documents and Institutional Reports. According to Exempt Resolution No. 2786, this institutional policy aims to promote the publication of studies and research that contribute to the debate on relevant topics or provide new approaches to the Commission's general and systemic vision of the financial market.

The Publications Policy includes works produced by the Commission's staff, as well as those developed jointly with institutions, universities, national or international organizations, and external professionals. It also establishes stages, requirements, timeframes, and protocols for the preparation of such publications.

In addition, the Commission has created an Editorial Committee that will oversee compliance with the guidelines established in this Policy, as well as the criteria to ensure security and confidentiality of all data and information provided by the CMF.

The new Policy for Publishing Non-Regular Documents and Institutional Reports is available on the CMF website.
