CMF informs about Banking Holiday

December 29, 2021 — The Financial Market Commission (CMF) reminds the community and financial system customers that banks do not attend public on December 31 of each year. This is pursuant to Article 38 of the General Banking Act.

This year, December 31 falls on Friday. Therefore, the Commission recommends taking care of all formalities and errands in advance because the last banking day of 2021 will be Thursday, December 30. Given current sanitary conditions, remote channels should be prioritized.
