CMF to file charges against three entities offering loans on their websites for alleged fraud

- Claiming to be supervised by the Commission, these entities request advance payments from individuals applying for a loan, who subsequently don't receive the agreed funds.

June 22, 2022 — The Financial Market Commission (CMF) alerts the public about three entities offering loans that are neither supervised by it nor registered in its rolls.

According to information gathered by the CMF's Investigation Unit, these entities claim to be supervised by the Commission and offer loans through their websites while requesting advance payments from applicants. After making said advance payments, applicants don't receive the agreed funds.

Accordingly, the CMF will file charges against any responsible parties before the Public Prosecutor's Office for alleged fraud. The identified entities are:

- Corpocofisa (corpocofisa dot com)
- Cooperativa Crediticia (cooperativacrediticia dot com)
- Suaval Compañía de Créditos S.A. (suavaldecreditos dot com)
