

CMF alerts about unregulated investment platforms

June 24, 2024 — The Financial Market Commission (CMF) alerts investors and the public about the following entities, which are not supervised by the CMF:

- Royal Camel, which operates through the rocamel dot com, rocamel dash inversiones dot com, royalcamel dot cl, and sites dot google dot com slash view slash royalcamel websites.
- Renta Chile, which operates through the rentacl dot cl and tesla dot rentacl dot cl websites.

Before making any investment, the CMF recommends investors to always do their research on products and companies they are considering investing with by taking the following actions:

- Check the CMF website to confirm whether the relevant company is registered in Chile, and which parties are responsible for its management.
- Use popular Internet search engines to identify any complaints or negative feedback about the company through its name, its directors, and the products being considered for investment.

The Commission also reminds the public about the special alerts page for investors, policyholders, and banking customers available on its website. Interested parties can verify here whether an entity or person offering financial products or services is supervised by the CMF; check alerts issued by the CMF and other foreign regulators on unregulated entities or activities; and other important advice for the protection of investors, policyholders, and financial clients.
